

WORLD SEAFOOD INDUSTRY

May 17 - 19, 2023
Expo Guadalajara

Welcome to the international B2B fisheries and aquaculture pavilion in Mexico

Mexico has the third place as one of the leading countries in the American continent in the fishing industry. Our country produces approximately 2 million tons of fishery and aquaculture products per year with a value of more than 40,000 million pesos annually. Mexico strategically links as one of the most important fishing and aquaculture industries in the world.

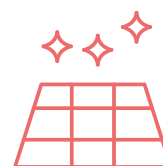

The dynamic and competitive fisheries and aquaculture sector in Mexico has a specialized business platforms in this field: World Seafood Industry (WSI), the international B2B fisheries and aquaculture pavilion in Mexico, which arrives in 2023 with an exhibition designed to meet the specific needs of the region.

Distribution and logistics

25 companies

700 m2

Fishing and aquaculture equipment

Transformation and processing

Specialised services

Exhibitor profile:

World Seafood Industry encourages industry professionals to exhibit their products and innovations at this international platform for sustainable fisheries and aquaculture, mainly suppliers of products and services such as: Aquaculture technology, fisheries, aquaponics, processing and transformation, distribution and logistics, specialised services and products for the wholesale market.

Space	Price per square metre	Badges	Tickets Visitors	directory	carpet	Screens	Vinyl Signl	Furniture	Electricity
Up to 18 m2	$3,300.00	●	●	●	●	●	●	standard	●
Up to 9 m2	$2,950.00	●	●	●

Pre-sale prices, valid until 15/12/22

Sales contact:

Thorsten Hofmann
thorsten.hofmann@hfmexico.mx

Samuel Ramírez
samuel.ramirez@hfmexico.mx

Deutsche Messe